Sir,

I have the honor to state that between July 1900 and 1901, Sundry repairs were executed to the Government Chavadi at Bommagondanahalli in the Molkalmuru Taluk under the orders of Mr M.S. Narainrao, at a cost of Rs 24-15-9; but the amount has not yet been paid to the Contractor. The Completion Bill was received in this office in January 1902.

2. I now request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the disbursement of the amount from the sum of Rs 25 saved out of the feeding allowance of the Chavadi during the months of September and October 1900 as reported by the Amildar.

3. The vernacular correspondence

on

on the subject is herewith submitted for reference and kind return when no longer required.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient Servant,
M. Hannin Rao
Deputy Commissioner,
Chitaldrug District

Collector.
